How the Application is Reviewed

Reviewers evaluate applications based on a set of weighted criteria centered around the fellowship priorities and application requirements. These are often listed in the NOFO (Notice of Funding Opportunity) or RFA (Request for Application).

Use the entire application (CV, letters of recommendation, etc.) to illustrate how you align with the fellowship. Draw on your academic and professional accomplishments as well as life experience.

The Bottom Line:

Reviewers want to know what you would get out of this fellowship that you wouldn't get somewhere else.

Reviewers want to know how you would uniquely benefit their host office or the fellowship program.

What you get and what you give
