

Invasion Card

One of the bullfrogs from your pond escaped and is now in your neighbor's pond to your left

Invasion Card

One of the bullfrogs from your pond escaped and is now in your neighbor's pond to your right.

Invasion Card

Your bullfrogs are super hungry.

Your bullfrogs eat double the amount of native species at the end of your turn.

Invasion Card

Your class orders a bullfrog online for the class.

It got too big for the aquarium and you decided to release it into your pond.

Add 1 bullfrog to your pond.

Invasion Card

There was a lot of rain the other day
allowing bullfrogs to disperse to new areas.

Add 4 bullfrogs to your pond.

Invasion Card

There was a lot of rain the other day
allowing bullfrogs to disperse to new areas.

Add 3 bullfrogs to your pond.

Invasion Card

To reduce pests on his farm,
a farmer released some bullfrogs into his field.
Two of these bullfrogs dispersed into your pond.
Add 2 bullfrogs to your pond.

Invasion Card

Someone released three bullfrogs into your pond to “improve” your pond.

Add 3 bullfrogs to your pond.

Invasion Card

A bullfrog farm has closed down and released their bullfrogs into the wild.

Add 10 bullfrogs to your pond.

Invasion Card

There was a lot of rain the other day
allowing bullfrogs to disperse to new areas.

Add 1 bullfrogs to your pond.

Invasion Card

You just remodeled your pond.

Your pond now holds water year round, which is perfect habitat for bull frogs!

Add 4 bullfrogs to your pond.

Invasion Card

Bullfrogs have spread chytrid fungus spores to your native species.
Remove 10 native species from your pond.

Invasion Card

Someone misidentified a bullfrog and released it into your pond on accident.

Add 1 bullfrog to your pond.

Invasion Card

Some local kids decided to raise bullfrog tadpoles they bought off the internet and released them into your pond.

Add 2 bullfrogs to your pond.

Invasion Card

Bullfrogs have spread ranavirus to your native species.

Remove 10 native species from your pond.

Invasion Card

There was a lot of rain the other day
allowing bullfrogs to disperse to new areas.

Add 2 bullfrogs to your pond.