

Prevention Card

You were able to identify a bullfrog before it was released into your pond.

Take 1 bullfrog out of your pond!

Prevention Card

A great blue heron ate 2 bullfrogs.

Take 2 bullfrogs out of your pond!

Prevention Card

You had a cookout with your local community and were able to get 3 bullfrogs for dinner.

Take 3 bullfrogs out of your pond!

Prevention Card

You notice bullfrog tadpoles in your pond.

You go out with a net and begin removing tadpoles from your pond.

You don't have to feed your bullfrogs this turn.

Prevention Card

You were able to quarantine
the bullfrog population in your pond.
You don't have to feed your bullfrogs this turn.

Prevention Card

You remodeled your pond to be able to host native species that like to eat bullfrog eggs and tadpoles.

Take out one bullfrog from your pond!

Prevention Card

You were able to get rid of all of your bullfrogs by poisoning the pond but killed native species in the process. Take all of your bullfrogs and 15 native species from your pond.

Prevention Card

You were able to identify a bullfrog before it was released into your pond.

Take out a bullfrog from your pond!

Prevention Card

You were able to identify a bullfrog before it was released into your pond.
Take out a bullfrog from your pond!

Prevention Card

You hear the calls of bullfrogs
coming from your pond at night.

You decide to create a management plan to remove bullfrogs from your pond.

Take out a bullfrog from your pond!

Prevention Card

You create outreach materials and distribute them around your neighborhood to spread the word about the impacts of invasive species.

Prevention Card

You went to your local library to learn about the impacts of bullfrogs on your local watersheds. Keep this card and prevent your next bullfrog invasion. Then return this card to the Prevention Card Deck.

Prevention Card

You volunteered with your local US Fish and Wildlife department to remove bullfrogs from a local pond. Keep this card and prevent your next bullfrog invasion. Then return this card to the Prevention Card Deck.

Prevention Card

You learned in your class today that invasive species are the second leading cause of native species decline.

Keep this card and prevent your next bullfrog invasion.

Then return this card to the Prevention Card Deck.

Prevention Card

You learned in your class today that invasive species are the second leading cause of native species decline.

Keep this card and prevent your next bullfrog invasion.

Then return this card to the Prevention Card Deck.

Prevention Card

You remodeled your pond to not have water all year-round.
This prevents bullfrogs from breeding successfully in your pond.
Take out one bullfrog from your pond!